Experience

Doug McGregor has been in commercial real estate for over 30 years and has completed over 2M square feet of transactions in major markets in Texas and California. His experience includes research and evaluation of sale and leasing strategies, tenant construction management, and corporate real estate consultation. He consistently earns the respect of customers, with a clear understanding of client requirements, and building and managing long standing relationships.

Doug has represented major institutional owners such as Bramalea, Trizec Properties, Great Western Bank, ING Barings and Embarcadero Capital Partners. Notable tenant representation accounts include Sony Pictures Entertainment, Mutual of New York, International Drilling Fluids, Herring Oil and The Liedke Family Trust.

His career began in Houston with Studley, Fuller Commercial and Insignia, and in Southern California, Doug worked at Bramalea & Trizec Properties, handling multiple projects in West Los Angeles. In the San Francisco Bay Area he oversaw the leasing of multiple projects in major submarkets for Embarcadero Capital Partners LLP.

Doug's knowledge of landlord's business models, combined with his local market knowledge delivers tremendous value to his clients.
